Lesson Three: God created man, then put Adam and Eve in the garden to tend it and to have dominion over the fish, birds, animals, and the earth. Within the ten generations from Adam to Noah, man's wickedness multiplied exceedingly. Scripture states, "the Lord was grieved that He had made man on the earth, and His heart was filled with pain." The one shining light was the righteous Noah. None of Noah's siblings, his father, his wife, or children were described in such a fashion. Noah would become God's instrument of salvation to this lost world. We continue today in Genesis Six:
